

EDUCATE LEARN EMPOWER LEAD

APPLY FOR A SCHOLARSHIP NOW!

ICAN Learn is excited to offer a variety of scholarships in partnership with Commonwealth Bank of Australia (CommBank).

CommBank continues to make a long-term investment into the future of learning opportunities for Indigenous Australians and grow job capacity for multicultural communities by partnering with ICAN Learn to provide education scholarships.

About ICAN Learn

ICAN Learn is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) and a social enterprise.

The surplus funds generated by fee paying students and investors such as CommBank support scholarships and education for Indigenous Australians across the country.

Education and employment pathways

ICAN Learn prides itself on its education pathway which allows some flexibility and assists students to find their best fit in the financial well-being sector. All courses have units that overlap, allowing for skills recognition and a variety of potential employment outcomes.

Proudly sponsored by the

Commonwealth Bank

What scholarships are on offer?

Certificate IV in Community Services (with the 3 unit skill set in financial literacy education)

Diploma of Financial Counselling

Lead and support colleagues (3-unit skill set for qualified workers)

How do I get a scholarship?

To get a scholarship, you must

1. Identify as Aboriginal / Torres Strait Islander OR be a person from a multicultural background who has come to Australia in the last 10 years; and
2. Be ready to learn and commit to study; and
3. Complete and submit an online scholarship application form; and
4. Attend a pre-training interview if accepted; and
5. Meet all aspects of course enrolment (includes requirements for Language, Literacy and Numeracy)

When do applications open and close?

Please refer to our website www.icanlearn.edu.au/scholarships for updated course dates and how to apply.

Note: Classes are compulsory and are held weekly in live online format. Each course has a timetable with scheduled breaks.

To enquire about the ICAN Learn CommBank scholarships, email administration@icanlearn.edu.au

Hear from some of our students

“The Financial Literacy Education skill set was great information and good to share with others beyond the work environment” Natalie

“(The teacher’s) knowledge, experience, teachings and support have been invaluable. And I mean it, I am sure most of us in class feel that way.”
Shaloo

