Professional supervision services

Our commitment

ICAN Learn implements the Financial Counselling Australia (FCA) National Professional Supervision Policy and National Standards for Membership and Accreditation when providing education and services relating to professional supervision. Fees paid for any ICAN Learn services contribute to the wellbeing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, promoting self-determination through education.

We give you:

- Agenda for each session
- Live online real time zoom sessions
- Group size capped at 8 or less
- Certificate of attendance for each session

What are the benefits?

- Link in with other financial counsellors across Australia
- Build your networks
- Professional development (CPD)
- All sessions have a Certificate of Attendance

An annual professional supervision refresher is available each year for an opportunity to refresh your professional supervision approach.

Is there a fee?

There is a fee which varies slightly depending on which professional supervision style is preferred. Detail is in the table overleaf. There is no ongoing commitment, just register, attend and participate!

Testimonials

“Professional supervision is a key aspect of leadership, workplace and individual support; a great way to build your career for the future, look for that next promotion and make a real difference! “

Financial counselling sector leader

“As a manager it’s great to know that my staff can have an opportunity for external group professional supervision with passionate financial counsellor supervisors.”
Experienced sector leader

ICAN Learn supports the financial counselling sector by providing accessible and affordable professional supervision and related education for:

- 1 Individual financial counsellors
- 2 Groups of financial counsellors
- 3 Groups of financial counsellors who are professional supervisors

Professional supervision individual

Contact us if you need a professional supervisor. All sessions are confidential as outlined in the FCA National Professional Supervision Policy. The process includes an agreement between the individual and the professional supervisor for services and costs $100 per session.

Professional supervision in groups [PSG]

Professional supervision in groups provides an opportunity for 1.5 hours of high-level professional supervision discussion in a group setting. It facilitates conversations between financial counsellors, explores various elements of professional supervision and facilitates professional development and is a way to meet membership obligations and build networks.

ICAN Learn can provide professional supervision for agency groups by arrangement.

Professional supervision for supervisors [PSS]

The PSS is only for professional supervisors.

You'll be able to:

- Debrief and discuss professional supervision and strategies
- Engage in a professional supervision education topic
- Explore challenges of professional supervision
- Understand your own approach and needs
- Learn how to cater for specific needs – e.g. new graduates, experienced financial counsellors
- Undertake an hour of education at each PSS session
